

Does Frontier Have a Name Change Fee?

(Updated for 2026 Travel Policies)

Yes — Frontier Airlines does charge fees for most name changes, and the cost depends on the type of correction and when you request it. Because Frontier operates as an ultra-low-cost carrier, most ticket modifications — including name corrections — may involve a fee and possible fare difference.

Name Correction vs. Name Change: What's the Difference?

Understanding the distinction is important.

✓ Minor Name Correction

This includes:

- Spelling errors (e.g., “Jhon” → “John”)
- Missing letters
- Typographical mistakes

Frontier may allow small corrections, but fees can apply depending on how and when the request is made.

---

✗ Full Name Change (Transfer to Another Person)

This means:

- Transferring the ticket to a different traveler
- Replacing the passenger entirely

Frontier generally does not allow free ticket transfers. A full name change may require paying:

- A name change fee
- Any difference in airfare

To check eligibility for your booking, call [[ +1-877-622-0707]].

How Much Is Frontier's Name Change Fee?

Fees vary based on:

- ✓ When you request the change
- ✓ Your fare type

- ✓ Whether you purchased add-on flexibility
- ✓ The price difference between old and new fares

In many cases, travelers must pay both:

- A change fee
- The fare difference (if the new ticket costs more)

If you made the booking recently, acting quickly may reduce costs.

When Can Name Corrections Be Free?

Frontier may waive or reduce fees in certain situations:

- ✓ Minor spelling errors caught early
- ✓ Legal name changes (marriage/divorce) with documentation
- ✓ Airline-caused booking errors

Documentation such as a passport or legal certificate may be required.

You can request a name correction by:

Online

- Check if edit options are available

Phone Support

Some name changes cannot be processed online. Calling [[ +1-877-622-0707]] allows a representative to review your ticket details.

Airport Counter

Agents may assist with minor corrections before departure (arrival early is recommended).

What Happens If the Name Is Wrong on Your Ticket?

Airlines require the name on your ticket to match your government-issued ID exactly. If it doesn't:

- ✗ You may be denied boarding
- ✗ Security may refuse document verification
- ✗ You could lose the value of your ticket

Correcting the issue before travel day is strongly advised.

International Flights and Name Changes

For international routes, accuracy is even more important due to passport and immigration requirements. Even a small spelling mismatch can cause travel disruptions.
