

How do I cancel a transaction on Uphold? Fast Help for U.S. Users 2026

If you're trying to figure out how to cancel a transaction on Uphold, 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167) you should know that cancellation is only possible in certain situations ⚠️. Once some transactions — especially crypto transfers — are processed, they usually cannot be reversed 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167).

When You CAN Cancel an Uphold Transaction

You may be able to cancel if the transaction is still pending or unprocessed 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167) .

Cancelable situations include:

- Pending bank transfers 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)
- Unprocessed internal transfers 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)
- Crypto sends not yet broadcast to the blockchain 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)

In these cases, acting quickly is very important ⌚ 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167).

When You CANNOT Cancel

Most completed transactions cannot be canceled 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167), especially:

- Confirmed crypto transactions
- Completed card purchases
- Finished withdrawals
- Blockchain-confirmed transfers ⚠️ 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)

Once confirmed on-chain, the transfer is permanent.

Steps to Try Canceling on Uphold

Follow these steps:

- 1 Log in to your Uphold account 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)
- 2 Go to the Activity tab 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)
- 3 Select the pending transaction 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)
- 4 Tap Cancel if the option appears 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)

⚠ If you don't see the cancel option, the transaction has likely already processed.

What If Cancellation Isn't Available?

If you cannot cancel 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167):

- Wait for failed transactions to auto-refund
 - Contact the recipient (for crypto sends)
 - Reach out to Uphold support
 - Monitor your transaction status closely 📁 1 ➡ (888) ➡ (574) ➡ (7167)
